Sir:

This Statement submitted in response to the Examiner's Interview Summary mailed on May 23, 2006, relates to a telephonic interview of October 1, 2006 between Examiner Eric Coleman and Applicant's representative Michael A. Messina.

It is noted that, in the Examiner's Interview Summary, the last name of Applicants' representative is misspelled.

As correctly indicated by the Examiner, during the interview, Counsel and Examiner discussed the outstanding 35 U.S.C. §101 rejection of computer readable medium claims 12-22 and data signal claims 23-32. Regarding computer readable medium claims, the Examiner suggested that the §101 rejection might be overcome if these claims were amended to limit their scope to a storage medium, as opposed to a transmission medium. The Examiner had no

Applicants would like to acknowledge, with appreciation, Examiner Coleman's courtesy and professionalism in conducting the telephone interview.
